Our vision

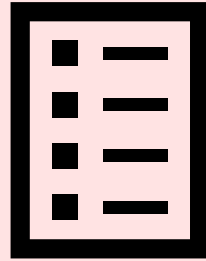

An institutionalized and ingrained culture of data-driven and collaborative governance and policymaking at every level of the Pasig City Local Government Unit.

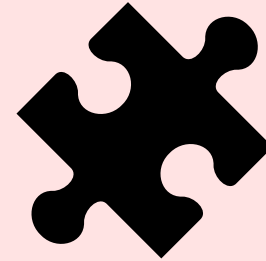

Issues with data sources for Local Government Units

Politicized procedures

Improper encoding

Data collection and analysis in silos

Lack of validation

Such issues can have adverse impacts on program planning and policymaking.

The Community-based Monitoring System has the potential to be a reliable data source for LGUs.

Cleaning and refining the Pasig City 2021 Community-Based Monitoring System (CBMS) data

Some perceptions of the state of the 2021 CBMS: underutilized, inaccessible, and difficult to use and understand.

In their report, consultants from UPPI identified several issues with the 2021 Pasig City CBMS data.

Our central message:

The nexus between population & development is non-negotiable and should be the primary consideration in policy-making.

SITUATIONER ON THE CHILDREN OF PASIG CITY (2021-2022)

Introduction

The Philippines is an ethnically diverse, middle-income country with a young and rapidly urbanizing population. More than half of the population of 101 million is under the age of 25 years. The 2017 National Situation Analysis of Children in the Philippines identifies a range of gaps in the fulfilment of children's rights. Despite progress in many areas, the most disadvantaged and marginalized children struggle to survive, develop and thrive.¹
